Dearest Mother,

Yesterday was almost another birthday. A picture arrived from Evelyn and the laundry case. Thank you very much for the lovely p-j's, the powder, etc. I certainly was pleased.

I dressed up in the p-j's and a kimono of Margaret's which just matched the green!

I have engaged a room in the Village Weston Road, c/o Mrs. Squires. Won't you please send the gray blouse ^{there} sent to be cleaned because I'll be needing it next week.

Keep the flannel p-j's I sent home in the l.c., the brassieres, blouse, & old crepe p-j's. Give latter to B if she still has a hankering for my old pajamas! I never wear them unless I have nothing else, & now, thank goodness I do!

I'm going to try to launder my new blouses this time anyway & see if I can keep the colors from fading by putting them in salt water.

Mary Slade & a couple of other girls are going to be at the same house & Helen not far away. If someone will take the room I have engaged I may get one at same house as Helen where we can cook our own breakfasts. But that address will be all right, anyway.

D. v. Bradstreet & David are driving down for Betty Friday & are going to stay a few days. I'm expecting we'll be "doing things" over the week-end.

This is certainly one hectic life. No wonder about 50% of the seniors don't want to do anything when they finish college.

Tonight is formal dinner for five of us O B K's who live here at Lower. I think it will be very nice.

Must rush off to study for seminar. Will write more soon.

Lots of love,

Grace
